S. S. HUNTER IN CITY.

President S. S. Hunter of Shreveport, president of the Bryan and College Interurban, arrived in the city last night. Mr. Hunter's visit to the city at this time is to inspect the work in progress on the Interurban line on Dallas or College street. His company is spending a large sum of money in the city right now in the way of improvement. The car track on the above named street is being lowered and moved to the center of the street, a new foundation is being put under it, and when completed it will be in a first class condition. In speaking of Bryan this morning Mr. Hunter said that he was very optimistic about the growth of the city; he said that one who was here only occasionally, like himself, could notice its growth much better than people living in the city continuously.

W. L. McFarren et ux to Robert Fuqua, 43 acres of the H. and B. Whiteside survey. Consideration $75.

AMUSEMENTS.

Another extra fine feature is being shown at the Dixie tonight, the attraction being "The Innocent Lie," a powerful five-act Paramount, featuring the well known screen stars, Valentino Grant and Jack Clark. There is much scenic beauty in this famous Players production, and many episodes of great dramatic and emotional strength. The exterior scenes are unsurpassably beautiful, and with spacious interior settings make an elaborate background for this appealing drama. It is another high-priced attraction, but will be shown at the Dixie admission of 10 cents.

At the Queen.
Ralph Herz, the star of "The Soul Kiss," "Ruggles of Red Gap," "A Pair of Sixes," and many other notable stage productions, will be seen at the Queen tomorrow in "The Purple Lady," a five-part Metro picture from the stage success of the same name by Sydney Rosenfeld. Dainty and fascinating Irene Hawley is featured with Mr. Herz in this production, and there is a strong supporting cast including Alan Hale, Howard Truesdell, George Pauncefoot, Guido Colucci, Gretchen Hartman, and other well known stage and screen artists.

Joe Goldenberg returned this afternoon from Houston.

Phil Pierce of Palmer, an old Brazos County man, is here attending the Farmers' Congress.

Miss Ella Whiteside of Beaumont arrived in the city this afternoon and will visit friends for a few days.

Elmer Bullock has returned home from Waco, where he completed a summer course in Baylor University.

Miss Mattie Dearing and Miss Frances Mike went to Ennis this afternoon where they will spend several days visiting friends.

Miss Eva Charles, who has been visiting friends in the city for the past several days, returned to her home at Corsicana this afternoon.

Contractors Hayden and Bates and their supervisor, Mr. Britton, of Galveston, are in the city and will inspect the road work which they are doing in Brazos County.

Henry Aker of Taylor, farm demonstration agent for Smith County, is in the city the guest of the family of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. White and is attending the Farmers' Congress at College.

DALLAS COLONY AT LEAGUE ENCAMPMENT

Program Arranged for Dallas Day to Entertain Epworth League Encampment at Port O'Connor.

(By Associated Press.)
Dallas, Texas, July 28.—This city has a colony at the annual encampment of the Texas State Epworth League which opened today at Port O'Connor. The encampment will last ten days.

The management of the assembly has designated one day as Dallas Day and a program is being arranged by the Dallas contingent for the entertainment of those attending the event.
